An important message from Mike Lovegrove, the organiser of Village Cinema

THE FUTURE OF THE VILLAGE CINEMA

It was in January 2011 that the village cinema was launched with the screening of Mama Mia which had an audience of 60. Since then we have regularly been screening films for ten months every year.

There is no doubt that this community event has been an asset for the village not only as a source of entertainment but also a meeting point for friends and neighbours.

I, supported by a small group of helpers, have been organizing the Village Cinema since its inception some 14 years, and I feel that the time has come for me to hand over the reins.

I would very much like to hear from a willing person who is keen to take over the lead to ensure the continuity of this satisfying and fun activity.

Unless a replacement is identified before Christmas the Village Cinema will close in January next year
